Dear Colleagues

As you know, RB Kensington & Chelsea is one of the most vibrant and culturally diverse boroughs in the country, and we are proud that it is home to such a large Iranian population.

The announcement of the first London Iranian Film Festival is truly a cause for celebration. The festival programme will have considerable appeal to the many Iranians living in the Royal Borough and across London. But it will reach out to a much broader audience, too, for there is something here for anyone and everyone wishing to become better acquainted with Iranian film and, through it, the society, heritage, and culture of Iran.

I wish the inaugural London Iranian Film Festival every success and look forward to it becoming a permanent addition to London's thriving film circuit.

Yours sincerely

John Hampson
